SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
REPORT TO THE RIVERSIDE DIVISION
MAY 24, 2022

To be adopted:

Proposed Changes to Education Minor (EDUC)

PRESENT:

Education Minor

The Education minor offers to any undergraduate student an introduction to issues and practices of education and research in public schools. Students from any major are invited to pursue a minor in Education.

Students in the Education minor may select from a variety of courses that may focus on a particular interest or may sample across aspects of the curriculum. Specific areas of interest that are reflected in the course offerings include: Special education, psychology, higher education, policy and leadership, culture and language, issues of classism, racism, sexism, heterosexism, diversity and equity, social justice, curriculum and teaching strategies, qualitative and quantitative methods, and educational research.

The Education minor does not lead to a teaching credential; however, some of the courses will satisfy UCR Teacher Education Program requirements. Students who are interested in pursuing a teaching credential should contact the Teacher Education Program at (951) 827-5225.
Program Requirements

The Education minor consists of the satisfactory completion of at least 24 units in courses identified for the Education Minor Program. At least 16 units must be completed in upper division courses.

Student petitions require the approval of the program advisor in the Education minor. Students may not petition to take more than 8 units of courses outside of the identified courses for the Education minor. College approval from both the School of Education and the major college is required.

Justification:

1. Editorial changes are being made to the catalog to update the course requirements of EDUC 010 in the course options. EDUC 010 was left off the catalog change for fall 2021 during the update last year by accident, but it was included in previous years. EDUC 010 is meant to be included as part of the course options for the minor. EDUC 010 is a lower division requirement for several upper-division courses in Education.
