Nominations Now Open For

ACADEMIC SENATE
DISTINGUISHED TEACHING AWARD
2023

Please submit all nomination letters electronically to senate@ucr.edu by

Extended Deadline - January 13, 2023

The Committee on Distinguished Teaching is soliciting nominations for the 2023 Distinguished Teaching Award. Competitive nominees must be members of the Academic Senate and should have a track record of sustained excellence in teaching as part of a balanced career trajectory typically spanning at least 10 years. Nominees must receive three or more nominating letters from students and/or faculty to be considered for this award by January 13, 2023. Each nominator should submit directly to the Committee on Distinguished Teaching, Academic Senate Office a complete letter which must include at least the following information:

(1) a statement explaining the nominee's qualifications
(2) nominator's name and address.

Upon receipt of three letters of nomination, the Committee on Distinguished Teaching will request all available pertinent material from heads of departments and programs to be submitted by February 6, 2023. If the nominators wish to suggest additional sources of supportive materials, they are encouraged to do so.

Nominees of previous years will require re-nomination to be considered by this year's committee. Previous awardees are not eligible.

All documents should be emailed to senate@ucr.edu.

* See attached nomination guide for assembling competitive nominations.