RE:

Dear Kum-Kum,

The UCR Division's Executive Council discussed the proposed revisions at its regular meeting of February 10, 2020. Members did not add anything significant to the standing committees' reviews, although there were questions raised regarding the rationale for the proposed revisions. Harry Tom, Chair of the Committee on Planning and Budget, discussed that the matter of Emeriti definition and compensation was discussed at the systemwide UCAP meeting that he recently attended. Divisional Chair Dylan Rodríguez focused on the UCSF summary document that was added for Executive Council's review following the systemwide conversation among Divisional Chairs and other Senate leadership. UCR Executive Council understands and affirms UCSF's significant concerns regarding the review process and timeline for these proposed revisions and urges the administration to revisit them under the auspices of rigorous, transparent, and well-timed Senate review.

We are thankful for the opportunity to contribute to this consultation.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dylan and Cherysa,

I wanted to let you know that I did not submit a comment from the CNAS EC on either Section 120 Emeritia/Emeritus Titles, or the Sections 240 Academic Personnel Manual, which I know were due Friday, because there were no comments from the committee. They thought it was fine and that's it.

Thanks,
Lou.
