Re: Resubmission of UCR Online Course Agreement (ILTI Agreement)

The CNAS Executive Committee discussed the Resubmission of UCR Online Course Agreement (ILTI Agreement) today. Members of the committee pointed out that previously there had been a discussion about the statement that UCR faculty would be responsible for any legal fees stemming from copyright infringement court cases. None of that discussion appeared here, and without a clear resolution on this, the proposal had limited value. Members of the committee also pointed out that given the large shift to remote instruction, this topic was particularly important and it is especially urgent to get this right.
